

Task 3

1. Your teacher will ask you to research the contribution to the First World War of some of the non-European countries from the following list:

Australia

Canada

New Zealand

South Africa

China

Egypt

India

United States of America

2. Look at the resources that your teacher will let you see which give details of modern battlefield tours of the Western Front (a major site of fighting during the First World War in France and Belgium) and other information about how some non-Europeans took part in the war in Europe.

3. In turn, skim and scan the text and write down under a heading for each country you have been asked to research the following details

Roughly how many non-Europeans from each country ended up in Europe

What they did there

Whether there seem to be any memorials or monuments to these non-Europeans on the Western Front today

4. Explain what impression you get of how important each of these non-European countries were to what was going on the Western Front between 1914-1918

how important the First World War is to these countries today.
